

LIVE LIKE A SAILOR

Visit one of America's Navy's naval commands during a three-day Educator Orientation Visit (EOV). EOVs offer an exclusive, no-cost opportunity to participate in an in-port tour experience that gives you a greater understanding of what life is like in the Navy.

SAMPLE TIMELINE OF EVENTS:

WHO CAN ATTEND AN EOV?

You're invited if you have limited knowledge of the Navy and have not participated in similar events held by other military services in the past. Participants are nominated by their local Recruiters and ultimately selected by the commanding officers of their recruiting command. If you're accepted, you'll play a vital role in helping Recruiters build relationships within their local communities and schools, and with students.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?

EOVs offer all the excitement of Navy life at no cost to you. All meals, accommodations and round-trip commercial airfare are included, and you'll be reimbursed post-trip. Reimbursement is not authorized for transportation costs to/from airport, airport parking or hotel expenses prior to day/time of departure.
